

IWS Anthem

The "unofficial" song commemorating anamnesis, christopraxis, convergence, ancient/future worship renewal and the inherent need to pass it on to others.
Performed by the IWS student body, faculty and staff, Orange Park, Florida, January 8, 2008

Tune, Auld Lang Syne

New Lyrics by
J. Michael Dennis
Rho Class

Reverently

Should our ___ con-ver - gence be ___ for - got and nev - er brought to mind?

When we ___ ar rive at our ___ context will ___ things ___ be left be - hind? Will we ___ still chant in psalm - ic tones, and vis - it new syn-tax? Will we ___ still wear our thin ___ name tags, and ___ munch ___ on coff - ee snacks? Will we ___ re mem - ber the ___ fine name of our ___ dear school? I pray, that we ___ will al - ways pass ___ the "peace" as ___ Bob ___ would have us say. If we ___ for get, then mad ___ he'll get, o'er pear - ly gates he'll climb, and find ___ those lack - ing stu - dents here and ___ kick ___ their sad be-hind.